

Stanley Chama

Mr Stanley Chama's professional journey is traced for over 30 years of experience. He is an Academician, Clinician, Psychologist and a leader in so many traceable portfolios. Mr Chama is a Director for Administration and a Senior Lecturer: responsible for coordinating managing academics and research for Zambia Institute of Health and Behavioral Sciences. He is a PhD Research fellow with PhD Institute/UNEM and National School of Leadership. He is a certified Negotiation and Conflict Manager from the United States Institute of Peace, and a Diplomacy and International Relations in Zambia. Mr Chama is an expert in HIV management and leadership programmes that includes training, prevention and treatment of HIV/AIDS

NPI/PEPFAR, UNICEF and other international organisations and donors in the SADC region and beyond. He has pioneered several media programme based Behavior Change Interventions and engagements, a Lecturer –Bolton Health and Education Institute, worked as a Continuous Quality Improvement Specialist: Maryland Global Initiative, several times Consultant / Resource Person for Counseling Trainings, ZAMBART, Lusaka Province Health Office, CIRDZ, CHAZ, Ministry of Health, Counselling Services and Training Unit, Action for Positive Change, worked as Technical Advisor for Mental Health Users Network of Zambia (MHUNZA), a Consultant and Lead Trainer: VSO Zambia, Palliative Care Skills for Caregivers, Savings Solidarity Groups and Entrepreneurship Training for Caregivers. Mr Chama worked as a Director of Programmes with Kara Counselling and Training Trust a leading HIV/AIDS counselling organisation. Managed the organization and supervised 8 Programme Managers (total 160 employees, 130 sub-partners in 8 provinces). Provided organization policy direction, Programme implementation, resource mobilization, collaboration, networking, forecasting, preparation of reports to the Board and funders. He is a Team Leader – Needs Assessment of District AIDS Task Forces in Northern Province- National AIDS Council/UNDP. He led a UNAIDS Best Practice Collection- HIV Voluntary Counselling Testing: A gateway to prevention and care- Five case studies related to prevention of mother to child transmission of HIV, Tuberculosis, young people and reach general population groups.

Mr Chama also has held several Board of director's position that includes Chairman: Copperbelt Institute of Health and Social Sciences, Board Member: Mukuba College of Education, Community Health Restoration Programme, Integrated Human Development Trust, Board Member- Regional AIDS Training Network for Eastern and Southern Africa. Member- HIV/AIDS Commodity Security Coordinating Committee. Ministry of Health, Member: National AIDS Council Prevention Theme Group, Health Sub- Committee of Zambia Red Cross Society, Civil Society for Poverty Reduction Steering Committee. Member- Zambia Counselling Council Also has presented the publications for ICASA Conference on HIV and AIDS issues.